THE BRAND LINE

A fresh take on frozen

Four dishes

Each dish owns a field and a lettering color. The signature, the type and the information row stay the same across the range.

COOKT

The signature

The D1 wordmark, used exactly as supplied. On pack it runs vertically at full height with equal margins. Halal sits in its own badge.

COOKT

1 Jamaican Rasta Chicken Pasta

Tender chicken with a fiery kick of Jamaican spice, tossed in a velvety pasta with sweet peppers.

3 Tastes like someone COOKT it. Because someone did.

5 We make frozen food that tastes how the dish is supposed to taste. Wild concept, right? Real ingredients. No shortcuts. Every flavor and texture arrives at your table the way it left our kitchen.

HOW TO HEAT

6 Working copy

- 01 Remove from box and peel back corner film.
- 02 Microwave for 4-6 minutes and stir thoroughly then 30 seconds as needed.
- 03 Mix the dish to ensure the sauce is evenly distributed.

INGREDIENTS

7 FPO Product-specific ingredient declaration to follow.

Next steps

01 Confirm the core brand color.

Deep green leads; mint and icy blue are on board 08.

03 Choose the logo version.

Original, Version 1 or Version 3, horizontal and vertical (board 05).

05 Select the DTC front.

With the bowl or type only (board 14).

07 Compare the bowls with plated product.

Portion, color and garnish for all four dishes.

02 Select the type pairing.

Option 01, 02 or 03, including the body face.

04 Settle the logo and dish-name colors.

One lettering color on pack today; a split is an open question.

06 Approve the corrected back, then rework its hierarchy.

The review notes are applied on the JRCP and Orzo dielines (boards 11–13); ingredients, allergens and marks are FPO.

08 Supply production facts.

Protein (48g is a mock value), net weight, nutrition, ingredients, allergens, heating, origin, halal certifier, barcode, traceability, carton size and the supplier dieline.
